

BANGKOK JUNIOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

RULES for PLAYERS

- No fighting ; no name calling or bullying ; no foul language; no vandalism; no stealing
- No arguing with the referees
- No lying, cheating, or taking other actions with the aim of circumventing league objectives and or rules.
- All players shall play in the division according to their age unless given expressed written permission from the league.
- Players must all have basketball court shoes.
- Must arrive on time. If a player cannot come or will be late, please inform coaches or team parents. Players may be “docked” playing time for repeated absence or tardiness.
- No Malicious fouls will be tolerated!!!
- Technical fouls will result in ejection from the game (and possible subsequent disciplinary action).
- No jewelry, watches, earrings, etc. may be worn during practice or games.
- Players are to maintain their fingernails clipped so as not to pose a danger to other players.
- Students missing practice days will face less or no game time on game days.
- Students without full uniform (jersey shorts) will not be able to participate on training and game days.

RULES for COACHES/ PARENT COACHES

- Coaches may take disciplinary action against their own players as they see fit during a game. Serious infractions should be referred to the head coach and the league committee.
- In the event that teams cannot field 5 players (during the regular season), teams will play 4 on 4.

RULES for PARENTS

- Players and their families are asked not enter the sports complex earlier than 10 minutes before their child's scheduled training session time.
- Parents are asked to sit in areas specially designated for parents and spectators and not to sit in areas designated for players and coaches.
- No food or drinks allowed in the gym except water
- No non-court shoes are to be worn in the gym
- Balls shall be only used by those involved in a scheduled practice or game
- All young children shall be closely supervised and not allowed to roam around the gym

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- Top Flight Basketball coaches reserve the right to move a student to a higher division if they feel the child is of an advanced skill level, if the parent does not agree to playing in a higher division you're entitled to a full refund of the registration fee.
- Players will be allowed to play in two separate divisions subject to the approval of the Top Flight coaching staff. Registration fee will double in these cases. 3500 x 2=7,000
- No refund or make-up classes will be given for missed classes. No exceptions.